Why Our Prices Are Lowest Don't Throw Your Money Away

Paying more for an article at one place than you would have to elsewhere is nothing more or less than throwing money away. Especially is this true in those cases in which you pay more for an article at one place than you would need to pay for a better article at another.

The Rexall Store

does most of its buying in combination with more than 5,000 other leading druggists of the United States. These combined purchases, tremendous indeed—representing many tens of millions of dollars annually—secure for us the best prices on the best goods in the best markets of the world.

Every patron of The Rexall Store gets the benefit of this buying power on every article he—or she—buys.

No other store than The Rexall Store has these buying advantages.

That is why you can almost get lower prices, quality considered, at The Rexall Store than elsewhere.

If you buy all of your drugs, stationery, toilet goods and other drug store supplies at The Rexall Store, you will, we promise you, save many dollars annually.

YALE, MICHIGAN.

Local and Otherwise.

W. A. Williams was down from Sandusky Tuesday.

Wm. Campbell was in Port Huron on business Wednesday.

E. F. Pratt was in Detroit the first of the week on business.

Roy Bricker was down from Marlette over Sunday visiting his parents.

Are YOU coming to the Homecoming? You will miss it if you miss it.

Ellis Ester is home from Port Huron for two or three weeks' vacation.

Capac village council has accepted Yale's invitation to be here the 27th of August.

I. F. Card and wife, of Toledo, Ohio, were guests of E. R. Card and family last week.

Mrs. Kate Menery and daughter, Isabelle were Port Huron visitors on Saturday.

Anna Monaghan is visiting friends and relatives at Stratford and St. Marys, Ont., for a few days.

The Misses Alice and Belle McKenzie are enjoying a lake trip to Duluth and other points of interest.

Mrs. Lyman Guiliat is stepping over a small stream sprained her ankle and she has been laid up ever since.

Mrs. Sehl returned home the latter part of last week after an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Davis.

John Craig and Ezra Kappler leave Thursday for the Canadian North West where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

The welcome Atmosphere is present at Cochrane's during Homecoming whether you come a sight seeing, resting or shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Travis returned to their home at Newmarket, Ont., after spending part of last week with relatives and friends here.

E. F. Pratt's new house in the north part of the city is nearly completed. Mr. Pratt will offer the same for sale as soon as finished.

A very heavy rain and thunder storm visited Yale today. The rain is just what the farmers have been wishing for and it will do lots of good.

Mrs. Alex McKenzie and daughter, Helen, of Sault Ste Marie, Ont., are visiting their cousin Mrs. Duncan Webb and other relatives here for a few weeks.

The red, white and blue bunting that will be used for decorating the homes and business places of Yale during the Homecoming will be sold at practically what it costs me. Cochrane's.

St. Clair County Grange Rally and Picnic will be held in Yale Park on Wednesday, Sept. 3, 1913. A good program has been arranged and everybody is invited to come and have a good time.

Mrs. Jacob Vanchief, an old pioneer of Brockway township, died at her home southwest of Yale on Friday, Aug. 15th, after a lingering illness. The funeral services were held on Sunday and interment made in Elmwood cemetery.

One day last week as R. G. McLaughlin was crossing a vacant lot in Flint he tripped on some wire and was thrown forcibly to the ground, breaking his leg. He was taken to the city hospital where the fracture was reduced and he is getting along as nicely as could be expected. Mrs. McLaughlin is with him at the hospital.

We unintentionally neglected to mention the music furnished by the Lexington band at the Yale races in our last week's paper. They certainly furnished some nice music which was enjoyed by all. On Tuesday evening they gave a concert on the streets of the city, and the people who were present were highly pleased with the entertainment.

The Expositor will fit up a rest room in the office for those who come to attend the homecoming next week. There will be plenty of rockers and chairs, and also table and desk which may be used for any letter writing you may wish to do. We want every visitor to call on us and have a chat over old times, and we will also have a register in which we would like the name of every old timer written. Come and see us—the latch string is on the outside, and you will receive a royal welcome.

One of the large barns on the property owned by the Livingston Flax Co., was struck by lightning and burned to the ground about noon today. There were about 100 tons of flax in the building and it is a total loss. The loss is estimated at about $4000 and insured for only $700. As soon as the alarm was sounded both fire companies hurried to the scene but the blaze had gained such headway that it was impossible to save the building, although they did everything in their power. This is the first fire of any size that Yale has had in several years.

On Sunday morning last, August 17, 1913, occurred the death of Katie McKenzie at her home west and south of Yale, after an illness extending over a period of nearly two years. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McKenzie and had spent nearly her entire life in this vicinity. The funeral services were conducted from the home on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. Eld. Lewis Cady, assisted by Rev. Bragg, officiating, and the burial took place in Elmwood cemetery. Altho her death had been expected for some time it was a shock to her many friends in Yale when news of her demise reached them. She was loved and respected by all who knew her and the many friends join with the Expositor in extending sympathy to the sorrowing parents in their hour of bereavement.

I have a full size piano case organ in Yale for sale at $30 and no less. Write me about it or inquire at the Expositor office. This organ is in first-class condition and a bargain. I will for the sake of a cash sell you a high-grade piano for at least $75 less than any other dealer. I absolutely know I can do this. One reason why, I buy for cash and sell under very small expense, —a better reason. Backed by nearly 13 years' experience as a piano tuner. Not only willing to use you right but able to do so. It's the man who knows his goods and understands his work you should deal with. F. C. Lillibridge, 55 Winder street, Detroit.

Yale Resort News

Guy Beard and family enjoyed the lake breezes at the beach during the past week occupying the McIntyre cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Roy Fuller and children and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Adams and little son were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Andrews from Friday to Monday.

Mrs. Sarah Holden and daughter Emma visited the Yale young people a few days last week.

The weather has been ideal. The one day on which the resort people have really suffered from the heat was last Saturday but afternoon brought a wind and rain storm and a cooler atmosphere.

Conveniences are close at hand. Fresh fish twice a week from the fishery, a quarter of a mile up the beach. You may walk, row or auto. Cream, milk, buttermilk, eggs, berries and vegetables just a short walking distance. A grocery wagon at each back door once a week and berries and potatoes are brought each place.

With beautiful Lake Huron flowing past, boats in sight, a beach and bathing facilities not to be excelled and two wells of pure water on the premises, life is certainly worth living when you can spend your vacation at Cedar Grove Beach.

Camilla Gleason of Port Huron is the guest of Ruth Menzies this week.

Over Sunday guests at Yale-Yugle were Nora and Nila and Renaley Holden, Mrs. Hattie Besic, son, Ventry, P. Van Keuren and Milton Edgihoffer, of Yale, Lena McKillop and Edith Schapler of Detroit.

Visitors at the beach Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Andrae and son Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Andrae, Mr. and Mrs. George Younis and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reid Cline and children, Victor Leannant Olin Beavis, Roy Sweet, Russel Nichols, and Russel Newsted, all of Yale.

A party was given Saturday evening at Yale-Yugle for the campers and their guests. The big upstairs room was cleared and given over for dancing with music by the phonograph. After dancing, singing by the bunch was indulged in and a lunch of lemonade and cake was served.

Ed Andrae is having his cottage painted. Lowell Munro is doing the work.

School Opens September 2.

The Yale Schools will open for the year on Tuesday, Sept. 2, 1913. The attendance promises to be fully up to the high mark set last year. We feel that we are better prepared than ever to maintain the high standards of the school and are anticipating the best and most profitable year in its history.

The Board of Education decided by unanimous vote to increase the rate of tuition in the high school from $20 to $25 per year. This is a perfectly reasonable and fair thing to do since it costs us more than $30 per year for each pupil enrolled in our high school for instruction, fuel, janitor service, supplies and other incidental expenses. Of this tuition the home district will pay $20 as heretofore and the parents must pay the other $5. This tuition is payable in two installments, $12.50 at the opening of each semester. The tuition in the grades is the same as last year, one dollar per month in lower grades and one and one half dollars per month in the four upper grades.

I shall be at the school building on Saturday, August 30, prepared to give an examination in arithmetic to those students of the upper grammar grades who failed in June and who have been studying during the summer in preparation for this. At the same time I shall be glad to see any students from outside districts who are planning to enter our high school this fall.

HYMENEAL

One of the prettiest weddings ever solemnized in this city took place on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Popp. The contracting parties were Miss June Popp and Mr. John Colburn Sweet. The rooms were beautifully decorated and to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Ethel Sweet, sister of the groom, the wedding party took their places beneath an arch of clinging vines. The bride's gown was of cream satin draped in silk net and she carried a beautiful shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The groom wore a blue serge suit. A sister of the bride, Miss Lillian Popp, acted as bridesmaid and was dressed in white carrying a bouquet of white sweet peas. The best man was the youngest brother of the groom, J. Roy Sweet; he wore a suit of black. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Rev. John Caldwell. Following the ceremony congratulations were offered and then the company repaired to the dining room where refreshments were served. Later Mr. and Mrs. Sweet left by auto for Marlette and will visit at different points and spend a week at Pearl Beach before returning to this city to locate. Mr. Sweet is bookkeeper for the Sandusky Grain Co., a position which he has held with much credit for the past two years. Miss Popp was up to a short time before her marriage, the bookkeeper and collector for the Consolidated Telephone Co. Both young people are well known and very popular and their many friends remembered them with a shower of very beautiful wedding gifts. They will be at home after Sept. 5. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties were present at the wedding. The following from out of town were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. James Sweet, Ethel, Roy and Mildred Sweet and Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Yale. Sandusky correspondent to Times Herald.

Erwin C. Taft and Ida Belle Mathews, both of Yale, were united in marriage at Port Huron on Wednesday, August 20th, 1913. The young couple are spending their honeymoon with relatives at Tecumseh, Mich., after which they will take up their residence in Yale. The Expositor joins with their many friends in extending congratulations and well wishes for a long and happy married life.

S. G. Bettes writes us as follows: "I will be at Yale Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 26, 27, and 28. Will speak every night at the Christian church if it does not interfere with the program. I came to Yale 56 years ago, before it was named Brockway Center. Father gave it that name. I named it Yale. We will have a great time."
